

Notation Legend

The notation legend is organized into four horizontal staves, each representing a different section of a drum set. The labels for each staff are on the left side.

- Drumset: HH (Foot), Bass Drum, Floor Tom, Med. Tom, Hi Tom, Snare, Rim Shot, Cross Stick, HH (Stick), Ride Cym., Crash-Cym.
- Snare: Tap, Rim Shot, Backstick, Rim, Brush Tap, Dread Tap, Ribbon Crasher, Cowbell, Ride Cym., Ride Bell, Crash-Cym., HH, Shell, Stick Click.
- Tenors: Hi Spock, Low Spock, Drum 1, Drum 2, Drum 3, Drum 4, Rim Shot, Rim, Cowbell, Low Jam Block, Hi Jam Block, Shells, Stick Click.
- Bass Drums: Drum 1, Drum 2, Drum 3, Drum 4, Drum 5, Drum 6, Unison Hit, Unison Rim, Rim, Rim Shot.

The notation uses various symbols: solid black dots for standard hits, 'x' marks for rim shots or cross sticks, triangles for backsticks, diamonds for ride bells, and slashes for unison hits. Some notes have stems pointing up or down to indicate specific techniques like brush taps or dread taps.